Welcome Home

to the Anglican Church

Welcome into the sacred space of All Saints' Peterborough, we are so glad you are here. All Saints' is an Anglican Church that is rooted in the pattern of life of Jesus the Christ, our ministry and worship is based on Christ's, Radical Inclusion, Extravagant Equity, and Compassion that Leads to Justice. We invite you to fill out one of our Welcome cards so that we can keep in touch, and please pick up one of our Welcome packages.

Land Acknowledgement

All Saints' Peterborough resides on the sacred land of the Michi Saagiig Anishinaabeg, the first peoples of this land. We offer our respect to those ancestors who may be buried in this land. This sacred land is part of the Rice Lake Purchase, Treaty 20. All Saints' is committed to continued reconciliation with our Indigenous siblings, through continued education and the inclusion of readings from the First Nations Bible.

Liturgical Notes

1. In the context of Christian Liturgy, Israel does not refer to the current political state, but either to the historic Hebrews (also called Israelites) of the ancient Near East or, in Christian theology, to all people who put their faith and trust in God as the ancient peoples of God.
2. Younger and Elder Testament. The traditional terms for the testaments 'Old' and 'New' have been changed to Elder and Younger. This has been done as an act of equity and promise. Old and New are words in our society that add value to things – often anything that is old is considered less valuable than things that are new. In our Christian context the New Testament has replaced the Old Testament, which is not only an incorrect theology, but it has also tied to it ethnic value, and antisemitic tones. The words Elder and Younger are born out of equity, and the Younger Testament is born out of the Elder Testament.

HYMN 576 FOR THE HEALING OF THE NATIONS

For the healing of the nations, God, we pray with one accord;
For a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us, Father, into freedom; from despair your world release,
That, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living, let it from the earth be banned:
Pride of status, race, or schooling, dogmas that obscure your plan.
In our common quest for justice may we hallow life's brief span.

You, Creator God, have written your great name on humankind;
For our growing in your likeness, bring the life of Christ to mind;
That by our response and service earth its destiny may find.

WELCOME

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT AND THANKSGIVING FOR THE LAND

Presider Creator, you made all people of every land in your image, All and entrusted them with the care of the earth. It is our responsibility to give thanks and respect to those who first occupied this land we are upon.
 We give thanks to Michi Saagiig Anishinaabeg, the first peoples of this land. We offer our respect to those ancestors who may be buried in this land.
 Creator, give us penitent hearts, that we may recall the destructiveness of western settlement on these peoples. Give us attentiveness so that we may hear and give thanks for Indigenous voices in our Anglican Church of Canada. Give us sincere and open hearts so that we may embrace the work of reconciliation to which you call your Church.
 With thankful and respectful hearts we pray in Your name, Your Son the Peacemaker and the Sacred Spirit. Amen.

OPENING PRAYERS

Presider I believe in the sun,
All even when it does not shine.

Presider I believe in love,
All even when I cannot feel it.

Presider I believe in God,
All even when God is silent.

(This prayer was scratched into the wall of a prison in Cologne during WWII)

Presider The grace of our Saviour Jesus the Christ, and the love of God, and the companionship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.
All And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,
All To you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

Presider Gracious God we are grateful for the communion of saints, for those we love and no longer see, for those who are present in our lives and who need your grace and healing, we lift up to you Gracious God those in our community who have asked for prayer. For . . . – teach us to be their support, to be the hands, and hearts of your healing grace.
All Amen.

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Presider Loving God,
All From whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed: kindle we pray in the hearts of all people the true love of peace, and guide with your pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the nations of the earth; that in tranquility your kingdom may go forward, 'til the earth is filled with the knowledge of your love; through Jesus the Christ our Saviour and Redeemer. Amen.

LAYING OF THE WREATH

Presider God of truth and justice,

All We hold before you those whose memory we cherish, and those whose names we will never know. Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm. As we honour the past, may we put our faith in your future; for you are the source of all life and hope, now and forever. Amen.

ONE MINUTE OF SILENCE IS HELD.

ROUSE

Presider Loving God, in a world where justice has not rolled down as waters, nor righteousness as a mighty stream, where knowledge floods in, but there is only a trickle of wisdom, we pray for this church. Turn our efforts to good, so that as our understanding increases, our sense of responsibility will deepen, and we will complete our time here having made the world more habitable, and ourselves more humane. We pray this, O God, in the power of Jesus the Christ our Saviour and Redeemer and for the sake of peace.

All Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

Reading

Isaiah 2:2-4, NRSV

A reading from the Elder Testament and the writings of the prophet Isaiah. In days to come the mountain of God's house shall be established as the highest of the mountains and shall be raised above the hills; all the nations shall stream to it.

Many peoples shall come and say, Come, let us go up to the mountain of our God, to the house of the God of Jacob; that God may teach us the ways and that we may walk in God's paths.'

For out of Zion shall go forth instruction, and the word of God from Jerusalem. God shall judge between the nations, and shall arbitrate for many peoples; they shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.

Hymn 24 ABIDE WITH ME

Abide with me, fast falls the even tide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see:
O thou, who changest not, abide with me.

I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who like thyself my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

I fear no foe with thee at hand to bless;
Ills have no weight and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? Where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks and earth's vain shadows flee:
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

A reading from the Younger Testament and Paul's letter to the Church in Rome.

Who will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will hardship, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Saviour and Redeemer.

Inclusive Bible

Deacon May God be with you.

All And also with you.

Deacon The Gospel of Jesus the Christ according to John.

All Glory to you Jesus the Christ.

This is my commandment: love one another as I have loved you.

There is no greater love than to lay down one's life for one's friends.

And you are my friends if you do what I command you. I no longer speak of you as subordinates because a subordinate does not know a superior's business.

Instead, I call you friends, because I have made known to you everything I have learned from God. It was not you who chose me; it was I who chose you to go forth and bear fruit. Your fruit must endure, so that whatever you ask of God in my name God will give you. This command I give you: that you love one another.

Deacon The Gospel of Christ

All Praise to you, Jesus the Christ
Alleluia, alleluia! Give thanks to the risen One.
Alleluia, alleluia! Give praise to God's name.

APOSTLES CREED

Presider Let us confess the faith of our baptism, as we say,
All I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.
I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Deacon With the going down of the sun and in the morning,
All We will remember them.

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Presider Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy.
Let us confess our sin, confident in God's forgiveness.
Most merciful God,
All We confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son, Jesus the Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name.
Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sin, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus the Christ our Saviour and Redeemer.

All Amen.

THE PEACE

Presider May the peace of Jesus the Christ be with you all.

All And also with you.

COMMUNION

OFFERTORY Offertory Plates are at the front of the church.

You are also invited to make an offering to the ongoing ministry of All Saints' Peterborough by either dropping off a cheque in the mailbox at the church or by clicking to donate button on our website.

HYMN 573 O DAY OF PEACE

O day of peace that dimly shines
Through all our hopes and prayers and dreams,
Guide us to justice truth, and love,
Delivered from our selfish schemes.
May swords of hate fall from our hands,
Our hearts from envy find release,
Till by God's grace our warring world
Shall see Christ's promised reign of peace.

Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb,
Not shall the fierce devour the small;
As beasts and cattle calmy graze,
A little child shall lead them all.
Then enemies shall learn to love,
All creatures find their true accord;
The hope of peace shall be fulfilled,
For all the earth shall know the Lord.

PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

Presider Covenant God,

All As a sign of devotion to you and your vision for the world, we bring these gifts. May they bring light to those who have lost their way, hope to the despairing, and freedom for those held in bondage. In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer

Presider May God be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to our Saviour God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider God of the living and the dead, in Abraham you called a people to be a kingdom of priests and a holy nation; and yet that people were often at war and suffered and inflicted great loss and grief. Your prophets proclaimed a day when swords would be turned into ploughshares. In the cross of Jesus, you took into your own body the hatred and cruelty and violence of humankind and responded with sacrificial forgiveness and redeeming resurrection. You showed us a love than which there is no greater, as your Son laid down his life for his friends. And so, we thank and praise you, with all the company of heaven, in the eternal song of the angels.

People Holy, holy, holy One, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the One who comes in the name of our God. Hosanna in the highest, hosanna in the highest.

Presider God of resurrection, in Jesus you suffered the horrors of conflict, in betrayal and brutality and injury and agony. Together with his friends he shared a meal that showed us how to remember, and so to piece together the hopes and dreams and bodies and loves broken by violence and death. Send your Holy Spirit on all who remember in sadness, that their mourning may be turned into deeper trust in you. By that same Spirit, sanctify this bread and this cup, that they may be for us the body and sacrifice of love of our Saviour Jesus the Christ; who, at supper with his disciples took bread, gave you thanks, broke the bread, and gave it to them, saying, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you; do this in remembrance of me." After supper he took the cup. Again, he gave you thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." Great is the mystery of faith.

People Christ has died; Christ is risen; Christ will come again.

Presider Redeeming and reconciling God, your love is made manifest when enemies become friends and woundedness turns to healing. Bless all who live with the daily grief of losing a precious person in battle. Strengthen any who carry injuries in body, mind, or spirit. Make the nations worthy of the bloodshed in their name, that those who have given much find honour, and any who are broken-hearted find wholeness in you, and all who work for peace are empowered by your Spirit; until the day when there is no more war, and your gentle paths lead us to togetherness in you, ever one God, Creating, Redeeming, and Sanctifying.

People Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Presider Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

All Our Father, in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

STATEMENT OF COMMUNITY

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

All We, being many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

All Thanks be to God.

AGNUS DEI – CHOIR

COMMUNION

All are welcome to receive Communion at All Saints'; this is God's table open to all.

Please follow the instruction of the sides people.

For those present in spirit, the following prayer may be said to make a spiritual communion.

I worship and adore you, Saviour and Redeemer, Jesus the Christ, present in bread and wine, and present in your people, who are gathered in spirit. In this moment I join with them to receive you in my heart, and in our community. May you, present in bread and wine, be present in my heart and feed and renew my soul. Amen.

ANTHEM EARTH DOES NOT HOLD

ERIC H. THIMAN

Earth does not hold the spirits of the brave.
Seek no imprisoned honour in the grave
The body broken, th'un broken soul
In some new region is unscarr'd and while
They gave their peace that peace might follow pain
They died in Christ, In Him they live again
As Christ is ever with us, so are they
A shining host upon the shining way
Oh in the bright procession of their fame
May we now follow, free from sloth and fame
To the great music, on the path they trod,
Who now have ended pilgrimage with God.
We praise and bless the memory of all
Whose life were given at their country's call,
Let God by us who live be glorified,
And by the living souls of them who died AMEN

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Presider Almighty God,
All once again you have given us what we need: sacrament, one another, hope for a better day. With renewed energy we offer ourselves to be sent out in your name; hopeful, grateful, useful, leaders of liberation, proclaimers of your love. Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
All Whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

HYMN 592 WHERE CROSS THE CROWDED WAYS OF LIFE

Where cross the crowded ways of life,
where sound the cries of race resound,
amid the noise of selfish strife,
O Christ, your word of love is found.

In haunts of wretchedness and need,
on shadowed thresholds, dark with fears,
from paths where hide the lures of greed,
we catch the vision of your tears.

From children's wounded helplessness,
From humanities' grief and toil,
From famishes souls, from sorrow's stress,
Your heart has never known recoil.

The cup of water given for you still holds the freshness of your grace;
yet long these multitudes to view
the strong compassion of your face.

O Jesus, from the mountainside make haste to heal these hearts of pain;
among these restless throngs abide,
and tread the city's streets again,

Till all the world shall learn your love and follow where your feet have trod, till glorious from your heaven above shall come the city of our God.

Deacon Followers of Jesus, inspired by the Holy Spirit, serve the world God loves!

All Thanks be to God.
